Now Available from Jacquard: Empty Containers!

Healdsburg, CA (February 28, 2018)

Whether for storage, color mixing, or packaging, everyone can use quality jars and bottles. There may not be a genie inside of every one, but the value of Jacquard's containers is undeniable. Made in the USA, these are the same top quality containers we use to package all of our products. They are available in a number of sizes in four material options: crystal clear, opaque black, metal (stainless steel), and translucent/white.
