Henna

Premium henna powder fresh from Rajasthan. Henna is natural colorant made from the dried leaves of the Lawsonia inermis shrub that produces a beautiful orange-brown color.

Henna has been used for thousands of years to stain skin (mehndi), fingernails, hair, leather, silk and wool.

Henna powder

Sizes

8 oz/0.23 kg (Item 9999500) - $14.99 SRP

1 lb/0.45 kg (Item 9999501) - $23.99 SRP

Jagua

Juice from the unripe jagua fruit (Genipa americana) has been used for body adornment for millennia. The Amazonian fruit produces a permanent, bluish-black stain that, like henna, lasts approximately 1-2 weeks.

Jagua is great for accenting henna designs, mixing with henna for various shades of "hengua," or used on its own for beautiful, dark colored designs. Because it looks so much like a permanent tattoo, it is increasingly used to test drive tattoo ideas and embellish existing tattoos.

Jagua is widely available in liquid or gel forms that have very short shelf lives unless refrigerated. Jacquard's dehydrated jagua powder performs just as well as gels, is free completely of impurities, and has an extremely long shelf life. Certified safe, easy to use, and with better economy than liquids and gels, powdered jagua is truly a game changer for serious body artists!

"Finally in my 7 years of using Jagua for body art, there is a product which allows me to modify the thickness and scent of the Jagua gel to my personal preferences. I love how dark the powdered Jagua stains the skin, all completely natural and without the use of chemicals. Jacquard's Jagua products are a valuable asset for body art professionals and enthusiasts."

-Melissa Addams, The Henna Mystic - www.hennamiami.com

Jacquard's Dehydrated Jagua Powder: Test and Discussion

Shelf-stable, water-soluble powder, safe and 100% natural. Used to increase the potency of jagua gels, for creating jagua gel from scratch, or mixed with henna for "hengua." Because it is soluble, Dehydrated Jagua Juice should be used as an additive for hengua and should not affect the water to henna ratio called for in the henna recipe.

1 oz/28.35 g (Item JAC1695) - $34.99 SRP

Eucalyptus Oil

100% pure Eucalyptus Oil. Used with henna and jagua for body art applications. Of all the essential oils, eucalyptus produces the darkest stains.

Allows for easy transfer of designs to the skin for body art.
